

Rye Congregational Church &
Abendmusik Fine Arts Concert Series present

NEW ENGLAND GOSPEL ENSEMBLE

featuring director Renese King & pianist Mark Copeland

RENESE KING, Director of the New England Gospel Ensemble, is also a soloist whose soulful and moving voice has been called “resplendent” by The Boston Globe and garnered her a Boston Music Award for

Gospel Artist of the Year. Renese King has toured with the Boston Pops, and was a featured Artist on the Emmy Award-winning film “Freedom Riders.”

MARK COPELAND, Pianist, is professor of music at Berklee College of Music, Boston. Mark Copeland plays throughout the world and has accompanied some of the most prominent recording artists and performers, including Patti Labelle, Yolanda Adams, Kim Burrell, Brian McKnight, Carl Thomas and many others.

Saturday, October 10 at 7:30 p.m.

Rye Congregational Church, 580 Washington Road, Rye, NH / 603-964-4061

Suggested donation: $15/adult or $25/family (donations will be collected at the door)

All are invited to a gala reception with refreshments after the concert.

Abendmusik is a nonprofit, all-volunteer effort presenting the finest chamber music north of Boston — at a fraction of the cost.